

CHAPTER 32

INTERPRETATION, PURPOSE AND CONFLICT

In interpreting and applying the provisions of the Resolution, they shall be held to be minimum requirements for the promotion of the public health, safety, morals, comfort and general welfare. Wherever the regulations of this resolution require greater width or size of yards or other open spaces or require a lower height of building or less number of stories or require greater percentage of lot to be left unoccupied or require a lower density of population, or require a more restricted use of land, or impose other higher standards than are required in any other resolution or regulations, private deed restrictions or private covenants, these regulations shall govern, but if the requirement of the other resolution, regulation, private deed restriction or private covenant is more restrictive, than those requires shall govern.
